“The survivor insight and wisdom, combined with the journaling prompts, and compelling visuals are unique, effective tools for our patients.” – Phil Fusca MSW, Co-Chair, Southeast Florida Cancer Control Collaborative, sponsors of both journals for multiple cancer treatment centers and support organizations.

“I now realize I’m not alone, even though it feels like it sometimes. The LifeBook helped me understand what I need to be happy and healthy, and how to get it. Now that I know what to expect, I’m a lot less afraid and stressed out. After all, if all these other survivors are happy after cancer, I can be too.” – Rosemary, age 42, breast cancer survivor
