

Help Your Patients Make a Successful Transition When Cancer Treatment Ends.

DURING CANCER

AFTER CANCER

Offer the patient-funded What's Next For My Life?™ coaching workshop via teleconference or at your facility.

No cost for providers. Patients pay a normal co-pay cost. Over 90% of participants report significant increases in their ability to make choices and take action when the “safety net” of active treatment ends. Action-based group programs foster healthy, maintainable choices to reduce stress and improve quality of life. For patients who are ending primary treatment within 90 days or whose treatment has already ended. For all cancer types.

At Your Facility
