When Paula Speaks People Laugh, Listen, and Learn

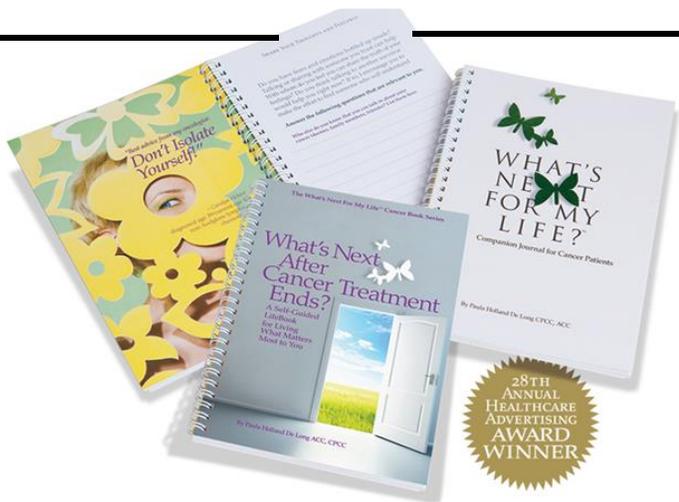

CLARITY + CONFIDENCE = EMPOWERMENT

Before cancer, Paula was an overcommitted people pleaser driven by a vicious inner critic. Creating success for others at the expense of herself was normal. Successful on the outside, she was chronically exhausted and overwhelmed, and secretly felt like an imposter in her own life.

Breast cancer at age 37 was her wake up call. Cancer recovery taught her to listen to the quiet, intuitive voice of her heart, rather than the terrified, naysaying voice of fear that had been running her life.

Paula's life experiences and professional expertise have honed her ability to teach her clients how to effectively manage their emotions, take back their life, and make choices that align with their truest self.

Her passion is reconnecting women who feel trapped, overwhelmed, exhausted, or unfulfilled to their truest self and a life of vitality, joy, and meaning.

Paula's award-winning What's Next For My Life?™ Companion Journal for Cancer Patients, and the What's Next After Treatment Ends? LifeBook are easy to read, visually engaging, feature wisdom from other survivors, personal growth lessons, and journaling prompts.
